THE CLARION, JACKSON, MISS.

HOLLY SPRINGS, MISS. THIS BOARDING AND DAY SCHOOL FOR GIRLS, opened September, 1882, in the family of Judge J. W. C. Watson, is under the management of his daughter, Miss E. D. Watson, and an Asso ciate Principal, Miss Cora E. Carey. Judge Watson's family consists of himself, wife and daughter. There are five thoroughly competent, experienced and faithful teachers, whose system of instruction is after the most modern and advanced methods. The Schoel and Lodging-rooms are commodious, well ventilated, and well furnished, and accommodiations in all respects first-class.

The number of Boarding Scholars is limited to eighteen; and of rupils, boarders, included, to fity. There being a teacher to every eight or ten pupils is an advantage to the school which can scarcely be overestimated.

There are now three vacancies in the boarding department, but Mrs. Carey, who resides near the school buildings, and whose family consists of herself and two daughters, both of whom are pupils of the Institute, will receive as many as four boarders at school rates.

The last twenty-weeks term of the present session commences Wednesday, February 24, 1887, and pupils can be advantageously entered at any time before that date.

Terms reasonable. For particulars, apply to Judge Watson, or either of the Principals.

HARPER'S YOUNG PROPER has been called

HARPER'S Young PROPIE has been called "the model of what a periodical for young readers ought to be," and the justice of this commendation is amply sustained by the large circulation it has attained both at he e and in Great Britain. This success has been reached by methods that must commend themselves to the judgment of parents, no less than to the tastes of children—namely, by an earnest and well sustained effort to provide the best and most attractive reading for young people at a low price. The illustrations are copious and of a conspicuously high standard of excellence. A weekly feast of good things to the boys and ciris in every family which it visits. - Brooklyn
